The Visualization lab is located at Gol-Hal. 3400. The lab is equipped with several facilities including: a stereoscopic capable computer, leap motion devices for gesture recognition, a Trossen Robot Arm for experiment with gesture recognition algorithms, several Macs, Linux, and Windows machines. Additionally, two large TV screens are constantly displaying videos of the visualizations of black hole mergers in the Black Hole Lab.